Saint Tropez lies on the southern shore of the beautiful bay of the Golfe of Saint Tropez. Unusually for a French Riviera village, Saint Tropez actually faces North West due to the curve of the land. This means that its port area faces into the evening sun and is a wonderful place to catch the dying rays of the day. The Golfe de Saint Tropez sweeps into the land in a deep U-shaped curve creating a small peninsula on the tip of which sits this famous French fishing town.
