

Bed And Breakfast Business In A Restored Victorian House €1,080,000 Marseille, Bouches-du-Rhône, France

Business description

One of the last Master house inside Marseille, the owners have renovated it in 2007 and kept the charm of the 19th century.

The ground floor has been dedicated to the b&b with three rooms, one with fireplace, each room with bathroom and wc. Also a vast living room with large fireplace, a fitted provencal kitchen, and a reception hall.

On second floor, the private part of the house with two large sleeping rooms, and two smaller sleeping rooms, very large bath room, a kitchen restored in the authentic Belle Epoque style.

The house is partly sold with the furnitures.

Fourteen plane trees inside the park and a pool make this rare place a heaven of silence inside the largest city in the south of France.
