

Hair And Beauty Salon

Mallorca, Spain

Price: €66,000

Business description: This amazing business has been operating from this prime location for several years now and has a large client base of repeat customers of all Nationalities.

The area of El Toro is increasing in popularity all the time and creating a lot of extra interest with more and more people moving into the area.

To the front of the business is a small terrace that is perfect for advertising and there as ample parking for cars all along this street, which is the main one for El Toro.

There are full length glass doors to enter the interior and also full length windows, perfect for displays and allowing plenty of natural light into the saloon.

The business under went a full refurbishment only 2 years ago and every thing still looks brand new, the electrical system was also replaced, there are now 2 large hot water storage heaters giving ample supplies of piping hot water when required.

As well as the main saloon area there are 2 massage rooms, store room and shower room plus a nail statio.

